

25
YEARS

An extraordinary season celebrating 25 years of great performances!

The Goshen College Music Center is thrilled to welcome you back to Sauder Concert Hall to again experience the magic of live performances in the 2022-2023 Performing Arts Series. Ten extraordinary performances feature new artists and returning audience favorites. While sharing the common characteristic of virtuosity in their respective fields, these performers comprise an eclectic series representing a variety of genres. As always, the series assures that you can experience an incredible breadth of top-quality performances right here on the campus of Goshen College!

This year's regular season ticket package again includes six concerts:

- Four core performances are set for each season ticket.
- Choose two additional performances from the remaining choices. Of course, you can add as many of the remaining performances as you would like to customize your season ticket package.

Buying a season package ensures that you receive the same seats for each performance and saves you 10% off of individual ticket prices!

We hope that you will enjoy the variety of offerings, and that you join us for as many of these outstanding performances as you can! We suggest submitting your season ticket orders as soon as possible to reserve seating in your preferred area with the same seat for each concert. Past season ticket holders will receive priority seating if they return their order form before Friday, June 10, 2022.

1

Wednesday, October 19, 2022 | 7:30 p.m.

The Scottish Chamber Orchestra

One of the finest ensembles in the world, the Scottish Chamber Orchestra is known for its exceptional performances and its extensive, multi-award-winning recordings under Charles Mackerras, and in recent years, Robin Ticciati. This tour unites two Scottish National Treasures, Nicola Benedetti performing the Bruch Violin Concerto and the Scottish Chamber Orchestra, performing under their new principal conductor, Maxim Emelyanychev.

Non-package ticket pricing: $45, $40, $30

Season ticket package includes: all four of these performances

RETURNING TO SAUDER CONCERT HALL

2 Saturday, January 21, 2023 | 7:30 p.m.

An Evening with Ira Glass: "Seven Things I've Learned"

Ira Glass is the host and creator of the popular public radio program This American Life, which is heard each week by over 5 million listeners on public radio stations and podcast since its beginnings in 1995.

Under Glass's editorial direction, This American Life has won the highest honors for broadcasting and journalistic excellence, including seven Peabody awards and the first Pulitzer Prize ever awarded for audio journalism.

Non-package ticket pricing: $55, $50, $40

FOUR CORE PERFORMANCES

3 Sunday, March 5, 2023 | 7:30 p.m.

Kingdom Choir

London's The Kingdom Choir™ is best known for their show-stopping performance at the Royal Wedding of Prince Harry and Meghan Markle. The group's performance of Stand By Me, seen by a global audience of over two billion, instantly catapulted the choir to worldwide fame. Founded in 1994 by award-winning conductor Karen Gibson, the choir draws from various Christian traditions and is dedicated to creating a sound that reflects the community they share through their warm energy and enthusiastic performances.

Non-package ticket pricing: $40, $35, $25

Season ticket package includes: all four of these performances

4 Friday, May 19, 2023 | 7:30 p.m.

Girl Named Tom

Small-town sibling trio Girl Named Tom seeks to create harmony in a world divided. With their distinctive harmonies and heartfelt performances, Bekah, Joshua and Caleb Liechty won the hearts of America while becoming the only ensemble to ever win NBC's The Voice. In addition to their chart-topping covers, Girl Named Tom writes original music that is projecting them toward becoming the best-known harmony trio of their generation. Come hear first-hand the group that features two Goshen College graduates and continues to blow away their quickly growing fan base around the country and beyond.

Cantus

Now in its 27th season, the “engaging” (New Yorker) low-voice ensemble Cantus is widely known for its trademark warmth and blend, innovative programming and riveting performances of music ranging from the Renaissance to the 21st century.

As one of the nation’s few full-time vocal ensembles, Cantus has come to prominence with its distinctive approach to creating music. Working without a conductor, the members of Cantus rehearse and perform as chamber musicians, each contributing to the entirety of the artistic process.

Saturday, October 1, 2022 | 7:30 p.m.

Eddie Palmieri Latin Jazz Band

Known as one of the finest pianists of the past 60 years, eight-time GRAMMY® Award winner Eddie Palmieri is a bandleader, arranger and composer of salsa and Latin jazz. His playing skillfully fuses the rhythm of his Puerto Rican heritage with the complexity of his jazz influences: Thelonious Monk, Herbie Hancock, McCoy Tyner, as well as his older brother, Charlie Palmieri.

Palmieri's parents emigrated from Ponce, Puerto Rico to New York City in 1926. Born in Spanish Harlem and raised in the Bronx, Palmieri learned to play the piano at an early age, and at 13, he joined his uncle's orchestra, playing timbales.

Aida Cuevas: "45th Anniversary — Yo Creo Que Es Tiempo"

Aida Cuevas presents "45th Anniversary — Yo Creo Que Es Tiempo" an unforgettable and emotional concert celebrating a long-lasting career as Mexico's most important female voice. The Queen of Mariachi is joined by renowned Mariachi Aztlán, along with other special guests. With a 46-year career, 41 album releases, GRAMMY® and Latin GRAMMY® awards, and 11 nominations to her credit, Cuevas is an esteemed figure in Mexico, beloved for her unswerving devotion to traditional mariachi music and for her mastery of its demanding vocal forms.

Celebrate Mexico's legendary and powerful voice with a new show combining the very best of Mexico's music with Cuevas' unique voice and style.

Tuesday, December 6, 2022 | 7:30 p.m.

The Swingles — Together for the Holidays

What better way to get into the holiday spirit than with songs of good cheer brought to you by The Swingles? The GRAMMY® winners present a banquet of music to keep out the cold, with folk- and jazz-inspired original songs served alongside traditional carols and festive favorites. The Swingles' crystalline vocals evoke icebound worlds, blankets of snow and fireside singalongs. The unmistakable sound of the Swingles has long been associated with Christmas, and audiences can look forward to music from five decades of holiday releases including their most recent holiday album Yule Songs Vol. II. Alongside these seasonal specialties, the program includes favorite pieces from the group's year-round touring repertoire.

WORKSHEET INSTRUCTIONS

SALES BEGIN: MAY 21, 2022

For your convenience, we are including a worksheet (page 15) to keep track of your preferences that you can refer to when placing your order by one of the options below.

Choose your preferred seating section and area

Find the column that corresponds to your seating choice (see page 16 to choose) and check the box next to A, B or C. The same seating section applies to all your show choices.

Now list your more specific seating preference. See seating chart on page 16 and indicate up to 3 seating area preferences (example: 1A, 2A, 3A).

Previous season ticket holders: Be sure to order by Friday, June 10, 2022 to receive your seating preference. After that date, we will do our best to accommodate your preferences.

If you would like to be seated with another party, please include their name during the ordering process.

Choose your shows

You have two options to create your package:

- Choose all 10 shows by checking the box, and receive the biggest discount.
- You can also customize your series by choosing at least two performances to go along with the four CORE shows (already selected). Feel free to choose more than 2 performances to customize your ticket package!

Discounts available for season ticket purchases!

The prices listed for each show are full price, but by purchasing a season ticket package, you receive a 10% off of individual ticket prices for savings of up to $43!

Buying a season package gives you the first chance to secure your preferred seating location and ensures that you receive the same seats for each performance.

How to order and reserve your seats!

This year, you have 3 options to order your season ticket packages:

- Order ONLINE by visiting goshen.edu/tickets, or using the QR Code below.
- Order by phone — Goshen College Box Office — (574) 535-7566.
- Order in person at the Goshen College Box Office located in the Music Center.

Individual tickets, if available, will go on sale Tuesday, Aug. 2, 2022 at the Goshen College Box Office or by ordering online at goshen.edu/tickets
